Whereas, Article 12 of the City Charter requires an Ethics Commission be established and that the City Council shall adopt an ordinance providing an ethics policy and code of conduct applicable to the officers, employees, board and commission members of the City; and

Whereas, the City Council appointed an Ethics Commission and requested the Ethics Commission to draft and propose an ordinance providing an ethics policy and code of conduct for the officers, employees and certain persons doing business with the City;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LEANDER, TEXAS, THAT:

Article 1. Declaration of Policy.

Section 1.1. It is essential in a democratic system that the public have confidence in the integrity, independence, and impartiality of those who act on their behalf in government. To promote confidence in the government of the City of Leander ("the City"), and thereby enhance the City's ability to function effectively, this code of ethics is adopted. Although codes of ethics can provide instruction on what to do in various situations, the situations will always be more varied than the rules can anticipate. Recognizing this, the Ethics Commission (the "Commission") will apply this ordinance to not only enforce regulations, but also to enhance and promote virtue in public servants who are its officers, city officials or employees, paid or unpaid, elected or appointed, as well as members of any standing committee or board.

Section 1.2. Furthermore, it is declared to be the policy of the City that proper operation of democratic government requires that public servants be independent, impartial and responsible to the people of the City; that no public servants shall permit any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engagement in any business, transaction or professional activity to conflict with the proper discharge of their duties in the public interest; that public office not be used for illegal or improper personal gain; and that the City Council at all times shall be maintained as a nonpartisan body. To implement such a policy, the City Council deems it advisable to enact a standard of conduct for all public servants to serve not only as a guide for official conduct, but also as a basis for discipline for those who refuse to abide by its terms. The overriding interest being that public servants of the City of Leander shall at all times strive to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

Section 1.3. The City further recognizes that public servants are also members of society and, therefore, cannot and should not be without any personal and economic interest in the decisions and policies of government; that public servants retain their rights as citizens to interests of a personal or economic nature, and their rights to publicly express their views on matters of general public interest. By prohibiting conduct incompatible with the City's best interests and minimizing the risk of any appearance of impropriety, this Code of Ethics will further legitimize the interests of democracy.

Article 2: Purpose.

Section 2.1. This Code of Ethics has four purposes;

- (a) to encourage high ethical standards in official conduct by public servants;
- (b) to establish minimum guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such public servants by setting forth those acts or actions that are incompatible with the best interests of the City;
- (c) to require disclosure by public servants and candidates of private financial or property interests in matters affecting the City; and
- (d) to provide minimum standards of ethical conduct for the City's public servants; provide procedures regarding complaints for violations of such standards, and provide a mechanism for disciplining violators of such standards.

Article 3: Present Public Servants.

Section 3.1. Standards of Conduct.

- (a) To avoid the appearance and risk of impropriety and self-enrichment, public servants shall not solicit or accept any gift, personal favor or benefit from any person doing business with, seeking to do business with, or being regulated by the City; and shall not take any action on behalf of any person or business entity from which he or she has received a prohibited gift, or in which he or she has a substantial interest. Except in the sole interest of the public and the performance of the duties of their position, public servants shall not take any action that he or she knows might reasonably tend to influence any other public servant to not properly perform their official duty, nor shall any public servant grant any improper favor, service or thing of value to any person.

- (b) As used in this Ordinance the word "Gift" means a favor, hospitality, economic benefit, product or item having a value of $250.00, or more within a 12 month period. A "Gift" does not include campaign contributions reported as required by state law, money, items, or benefits received from a relative if given on account of kinship, or any value received by will, intestate succession, or as a distribution from an inter vivos or testamentary trust established by a spouse or ancestor.

 - (iii) Whether the person or entity giving the gift, or on whose behalf the gift is made, has done business with or has been regulated by the City within the immediate proceeding twenty-four (24) calendar months, or is seeking to do business with the City, or does business with or is regulated by the City during the subsequent twelve (12) months.

Section 3.2. Personal Financial Interest.

- (a) Public servants of the City shall not participate in a vote or decision in which they have a direct substantial financial interest. Ownership in an amount in excess of one percent (1%) of an entity or property shall constitute substantial interest. Public servants shall not release confidential, proprietary or privileged information for any purpose other than the performance of official responsibilities. Within seven (7) working days of the Commission's decision to consider a possible violation of this the Commission shall draft a written complaint specifying the provision(s) of this ordinance alleged to have been violated and shall file a copy with the city secretary, and provide a copy to the city attorney, the independent counsel, and the person against whom the complaint was alleged. Not later than fifteen (15) days after the drafting of the complaint, the Commission shall notify in writing the person against whom the complaint was alleged of the date for the preliminary hearing.
- (f) After a complaint has been filed, and during the pending hearing of a complaint before the Commission, a member of the Commission may not communicate directly or indirectly with any party or person about any issue of fact or law regarding the complaint, except at a meeting of the Commission; provided that the Chairperson may consult and coordinate with independent legal counsel.
- (g) As soon as reasonably possible, but in no event more than sixty (60) days after receiving a complaint, the Commission shall conduct a preliminary hearing.
 - (i) The issue at a preliminary hearing shall be the existence of reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this ordinance has occurred. The person filing a complaint, or the independent counsel in cases considered upon the Commission's own initiative, shall state the alleged violation and shall describe in narrative form the testimony and other evidence which would be presented to prove the alleged violations stated in the written complaint.  - (iv) At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the Commission shall decide whether a final hearing should be held. If the Commission does not determine that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation has occurred, the complaint shall be automatically dismissed. A decision to conduct a final hearing is not a finding that a violation has occurred.
 - (v) The Commission, at any time during the preliminary hearing, may also dismiss a complaint if the complaint does not allege conduct which would be a violation of this ordinance. Before a complaint is dismissed for failure to allege a violation, the complainant shall be permitted one opportunity, within ten (10) working days of such a preliminary hearing, to revise and resubmit the complaint.
 - (vi) The complainant, the independent counsel, and public servant named in the complaint may ask the Commission at a preliminary hearing to request certain persons and evidence for a final hearing, if one is scheduled.
- (h) Final Hearing.
- (i) The final hearing shall be held as expeditiously as possible following the determination by the Commission that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this ordinance has occurred. The Commission may grant two (2) postponements, not to exceed fifteen (15) days each, upon the request of the public servant named in the complaint.
 - (ii) The issue at a final hearing shall be whether a violation of this ordinance has occurred. The Commission shall make its determination based on clear and convincing evidence in the record. All witnesses shall make their statements under oath.
 - (iii) If the Commission determines that a violation has occurred, it shall state its findings in writing, shall violated, the particular provision(s) of this ordinance which have been violated, and within five (5) working days shall deliver a copy of the findings to the complainant, if any, the public servant named in the complaint, and the city secretary.
