Tomas Fierro – Photography @ Blue House

Shut the Front Door

TF13RR0@gmail.com

"I have lived in Leander for two years. After eight years in the Coast Guard I became a photographer. I also paint and have participated in other showcases. After the wildfires that occurred in Leander, I found the opportunity to document the aftermath. All three of my photographs are montages. Each photo is one particular place that has been deconstructed and put back together for a more dramatic effect."

Ed Kelly – Photography @ Pat Bryson Hall, City Hall and Blue House

<http://www.edkelley.biz/weddings/>

Ed developed a passion for photography at age 12. He played with a 4" x 5" Speed Graphic camera and developed his work in his childhood home darkroom. "The first time I saw that print come to life in the developer, I was hooked". Over the years, Ed has won several Austin Professional Photographers Association awards and in June won the grand prize at the Texas School of Photography shootout against hundreds of Texas photographers.

In addition to family and wedding photographs, Ed is well known for his distinctive photographs. To obtain price information for his work contact him at (512) 986-5519.

Kathleen McElwaine – Painting and Print @ Pat Bryson Hall, Blue House, City Hall

Lazy Days of Summer

<http://www.kmcelwaine.com>

Kathleen grew up on a small quarter horse ranch in Tulsa, OK with a full-fledged cowboy Dad. "Much of my childhood was spent sketch-book in hand, in the front seat of a '54 Chevy pickup truck. Through the windshield I developed a love for art and animals."

Cindy Tauer-Eckart – Painting @ Blue House

Splash

www.cindyeckart-artist.com

Cindy is a Houston transplant, who moved to Leander in 2008 after Hurricane Ike. She studied Art at the University of Houston, Glassell School of Art and The Art League of Houston. Cindy has had a lifelong fascination with cave art – petro glyphs and pictographs. She spent many hours on the gravel roads of Fresno, CA and Texas to find pieces of petrified wood. The 'found treasures' afforded Cindy a 'canvas' to paint simplistic pictures. She then returned to these roadways to throw back 'her Art' in the hope someone would find it. Maybe in their mind an ancient treasure had been found. Today, some 40 years later, she has expanded her painting style and creates art with bold colors and textures. She currently serves on the Board of the Williamson County Art Guild. Cindy's displayed work at the Georgetown Art Hop, the Georgetown Library, as well as other shows in and around the Austin area.

Her titles include:

- Tiny Dancers - $145
- Splash - $160

Rick Shick – Illustrations and Photography, Blue House

rick@rickshick.com
www.rickshick.com

Rick's early interest in art left him on the kitchen floor, hunched over an unspooled 'canvas' of excess newspaper roll. "Didn't everyone see the almost direct connection between Renaissance Masters and SpiderMan?" This passion has led to a successful entertainment industry career.

Titles include:

- Atomic City - $20
- You Photograph Well - $40
- Trophy Wall - $40
- Old Man/Young Girl - $40
- Hallow's Eve - $40
- Invasion - $40
- Door #3 - $60

Katherine Uitz – Paintings @ Pat Bryson Hall, Blue House and White House

Mountain Man

kuitz@yahoo.com

British-born Katherine Uitz grew up in a small Texas town. After University graduation, she moved to Austria where she lived for seven years and became an accomplished watercolorist. When she moved back to Texas, Katherine added oil painting and drawing back into her repertoire. She currently teaches at the Art Center of Williamson County and has her own Leander studio.

Titles include:

- Out of the Chute
- Blacksmith Apprentice
- Medicine Man
- Park Bench
